

SFIA Rate Card

As indicated in our pricing overview subscription to the Gas Tag service includes provision of spare Gas Tags and multiple portal users. It will also include implementation support and initial instruction or training of gas engineers via self-service or onsite presence.

We therefore assume that no additional consultancy charges would be necessary for a standard implementation. However, should the need for such services become necessary then rates can be provided upon receiving such a request.