1. Pricing Summary

Table 1 below details the lowest and highest rates for each of the SFIA roles, as defined in the Technical Level Definitions section.

The DXC Technology rate structure provides customers to select either UK Based (Local Delivery) or Off-Shore Consultants within each category depending on the delivery model chosen:

- UK-Based On-site (Customer premises) and / or DXC UK Locations
- Regional Delivery (India) Leveraged Global / Regional Delivery from a DXC site dependent on consulting expertise / location and security requirements.

Note: Other Offshore Locations are available; pricing is available depending on the service required

The benefit to your business is that DXC can provide an efficient and economical delivery model allowing clients to add technical resources quickly to meet growing needs.

We would be delighted to engage with you and determine the best fit for your projects in order to achieve the outcomes you need.

Once agreed, this would form the basis of the order, and be subject to the Call-Off and DXC Terms, and Conditions, which support this service.
