Pricing Overview

Introduction

Included with All Subscriptions

Subscriptions to ArtifaxEvent and ArtifaxAgora include technical and end-user information and support services, access to community forums, hosting fees (if applicable) plus regular updates and enhancements to the applications. These are applied automatically if you are hosted in the ArtifaxCloud and can be downloaded from our Help Centre if you have an on-premises installation or for back-up purposes (ArtifaxEvent only).

Users

There is no limit to the number of users you can have registered, but the number of them who can log in at any one time is restricted to the number of named and/or concurrent licences. Each concurrent licence would typically support three named users.

Limitations

There is no limit to the number of rooms, resources, events, contacts and transactions you can create, or to the size of your database. Unlimited access to the central calendar through Outlook, Google Calendar, iCloud Calendar and other third-party calendar apps is free of charge.

Discounts

Term

Prices are based on a 24-month term and will apply for the extension period(s) of 12 months each.

Volume

Quantity breaks are available for both ArtifaxEvent (based on the number of users) and ArtifaxAgora (based on the number of sites). A site licence (unlimited users) is available for ArtifaxEvent for forty users or more.

Education

Please contact us for details.

Existing Clients with a Perpetual Licence Agreement

Please contact us for details of transition arrangements.

User and Module Prices

ArtifaxEvent starts at £160 per month for the core system, which includes full financial functionality, a document repository and unrestricted access to the API.

We offer a la carte pricing, so that organisations can choose exactly what they need. We also offer ready-made Standard, Premium and Enterprise packages, plus Site and Ultimate packages for large organisations.

Organisations can add temporary users to cover busy times, paying only for the duration they are needed.
