MODERN SLAVERY

In line with the Modern Slavery Act 2015, BJSS publishes an annual statement on modern slavery. The Act requires all UK commercial firms with a turnover of more than £36 million to produce an annual modern slavery and human trafficking statement.

BJSS conducts its business with integrity. It is one of our core values and shapes the way we interact with our colleagues and with our clients and suppliers. BJSS does not tolerate modern slavery or human trafficking in the way we conduct our business, and we expect the same approach from our suppliers, contractors and other business partners.

We consider there to be a low or negligible risk in the conduct of our business. We include this in our Code of Conduct to ensure that everyone associated with BJSS is aware of our approach.
